Foreword

The U.S. Office of Bilingual Education (OBE) provided the data that follows on specific programs that it funded in 1979-80. The organization of this material is described below. Any information that has been verified and reorganized by the National Clearinghouse for Bilingual Education is identified in the following descriptions.

Section I: ESEA Title VII Bilingual Education Basic Programs

This table lists the number of bilingual education basic programs in each state, the total grant awards per state, the institution and location of each basic program, the amount of the grant award, and the languages served by each program. To expedite the timely production of this document, copy in this section appears exactly as it was prepared by the Office of Bilingual Education. The user should note that programs within the states are not listed alphabetically.

Section II: ESEA Title VII Network Centers

This section is divided into three categories: Dissemination and Assessment Centers, Training Resource Centers, and Materials Development Centers. The information received from OBE was verified and organized by state. Listed are the names of each center, address, phone number, director, and the languages served.

Section III: ESEA Title VII Fellowship Programs

The material in this section has been verified and organized by state. The following information is given for each bilingual education fellowship program: institution, address, phone number, director, languages in the program, degrees awarded, and the number of fellowships.

Section IV: State Educational Agencies

The State Educational Agencies (SEAs) are listed in alphabetical order by state. The following information is provided for the bilingual division of each SEA: name of director, address of agency, and phone number.

Section V: ESEA Title VII Training Grants

The training grants are arranged in alphabetical order by state and city. Each grant is listed along with institution name, address, contact person, phone number, grant number, years in force, number of years negotiated, languages served, number of trainees, activities, and amount of grants awarded. Also included are a summary of the training grants and a breakdown by state of the number of grants, the number of trainees, and the total grant awards.

If you have any questions about this material or if you would like additional information, please contact the U.S. Office of Bilingual Education, 400 Maryland Avenue, SW, Reporter's Building - Room 421, Washington, DC 20202, telephone (202) 245-2600.
